

Contents

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| Study Questions   | 5   |
| Daniel 1: Drawing the Line   | 19  |
| The establishment of the distinctiveness of Daniel and his friends: God's sovereignty veiled, and the superior wisdom of the Jews explained |     |
| Daniel 2: Being in the Know  | 45  |
| The nature of the distinctiveness of Daniel: God's sovereignty revealed in the giving of unique wisdom                                      |     |
| Daniel 3: The Unbowed  | 87  |
| Ultimate commitment to distinctiveness: God's sovereignty revealed in rescuing his servants from the place of certain destruction           |     |
| Daniel 4: Cut Down to Size   | 107 |
| God humbles a proud human ruler: First demonstration of God's sovereignty over all human kingdoms   |     |
| Daniel 5: The Writing's on the Wall  | 123 |
| God destroys a blasphemous human ruler: Second demonstration of God's sovereignty over human kingdoms                                       |     |
| Daniel 6: Two Decrees  | 145 |
| Ultimate commitment to distinctiveness: God's sovereignty revealed in rescuing his servant from the place of certain destruction            |     |
| Bibliography   | 165 |

